

Editor's Note

AMJ 2021 16(2)

Editor's Note

Rick Steves

Managing Editor
Australasian Medical Journal
E-mail: medicalsei@medicineinsights.com

Dear Readers,

Season's greetings!

We are satisfied to present to you the second issue of the 2023. Alongside scarcely any unique papers of contextual analyses, Exploration, survey article, for this issue we chose to recognize the commitments during this Year.

We might want to see the value to your advantage and supports towards the AMJ. In any case, we guarantee you that we give our all to give you the quality survey process at a standard Spans. In view of that, we might want to communicate our genuine thanks to the AMJ article group who assess papers, deal with the distribution cycle and answer writers.

Much thanks to you, as well, to the article board individuals who have upheld the diary since its origin and who keep on advancing its development. Furthermore, to the analysts, we value the time you devote to guaranteeing papers fulfill our guidelines for logical quality and trustworthiness.

The AMJ was established to assist junior scientists and creators from emerging nations with finding out about the thoroughness engaged with setting up a composition for distribution and in getting distributed. We stay focused on that goal. Too, we keep on getting additional papers from driving specialists in Australia, Saudi Arabia, The US and different nations, which is a demonstration of our obligation to quality.

We anticipate proceeded with progress and development. Think about joining to be a commentator or prescribing analysts to us. Present a paper to the AMJ for distribution and prescribe the diary to others as a scene for distributing their scholarly examination.

If you have any questions, email AMJ Editor. Wishing you all the best for 2023!

Sincerely,

Rick Steves
ManagingEditor
Australasian Medical Journal
